- No full ticket changes
- Limited corrections allowed
- No passenger transfers

Two Types of Name Corrections Allowed on Non-Refundable Lufthansa Tickets

Lufthansa distinguishes between minor corrections and major changes, even for restricted fare categories. The type of correction determines how your request will be processed.

1. Minor Name Corrections (Allowed on Non-Refundable Tickets)

call+833-319-6372(USA) and 833-297-6740(USA). Minor corrections are small adjustments that do not change the identity of the traveler. These are usually permitted even on low-cost, non-refundable fares.

Examples include:

- One or two letters wrong
- Typographical errors
- Adding or removing a middle name
- Missing or misplaced hyphens
- Reversed first and last names (depending on route)
- Misspelled surname

These do not require legal documents in most cases.

Typical fees for minor corrections on non-refundable fares:

- $0–$50 correction fee
- Possible reissue fee, depending on fare rules
- Small agency fee, if booked through a travel agent

A Lufthansa representative can check your fare rules immediately when you call call+833-319-6372(USA) and 833-297-6740(USA).

2. Major Name Changes (Allowed With Documentation)

Major changes involve legally updating your identity, such as: call+833-319-6372(USA) and 833-297-6740(USA).

- Marriage-related name change
- Divorce-related last-name return
- Court-ordered name update
- Changing entire first or last name

These require documentation and usually a ticket reissue.

Documents you may need:

- Updated passport
- Marriage certificate
- Divorce decree
- Government-issued name change document

Even on non-refundable tickets, Lufthansa permits major corrections as long as the passenger remains the same individual. You cannot transfer the ticket to a different person.

Fees for major changes on non-refundable tickets:

- $100–$300 name correction or reissue fee
- Fare difference if the original fare is no longer available
- Agency processing fee (if applicable)

To know exactly what your fee will be, call call+833-319-6372(USA) and 833-297-6740(USA).
