Your child is experiencing some difficulty in school. Specifically, he/she struggles with _____
_____.

We use a process called "Response to Intervention" (RtI) to give students additional help when they need it, beyond the different types of instruction the teacher may use on a daily basis. This means that a specialist (speech-language pathologist, reading teacher, etc.) may conduct a classroom observation or a screening, or may work with your child to teach a particular skill.

- We need your permission to conduct a screening in the area(s) of _____
- We need your permission for _____ to work directly with your child for a period of _____ weeks within small group or the classroom setting.
- You are invited to discuss this at a meeting on _____ at _____ AM/PM at your child's school.

I understand and give permission for the above activities.
