

Navigating your way through SLP school based services with support from the Ohio SLP Supervisory Network

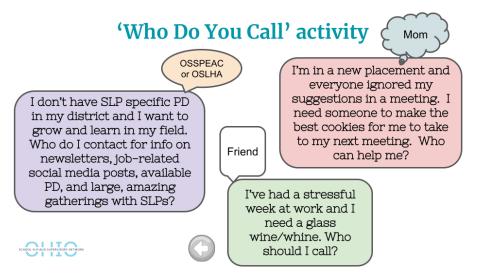

Who Do You Call?

What you need to know...When you have a dilemma in school, who do you call? Perhaps your question is confidential, time sensitive, immediate, thought-provoking or just out of curiosity. What resources are available to you and who/what would be best to contact? Some of your choices may be:

Your supervisor	ESC or SST personnel	A colleague
Organization(s): OSLHA OSSPEAC	Office for Exceptional Children, Ohio Department of Education (OEC/ODE)	Ohio Speech and Hearing Professionals Board (OSHPB)
American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA)	Your union Representative	Your parents

Below are several scenarios that others have experienced with a hint of who best to contact. Please keep in mind the importance of reaching out to your immediate supervisor first when possible. The 'chain of command' is very important to understand and follow in any workplace.

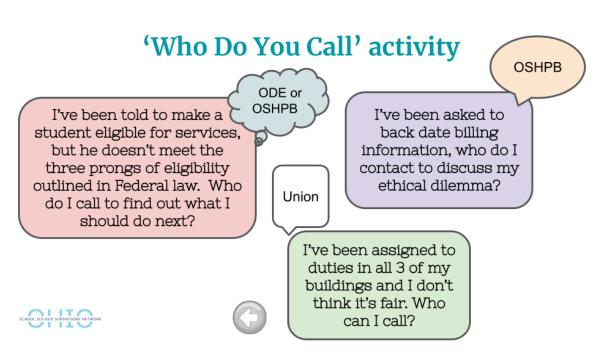

February 2022

Find us on facebook: Ohio SLP AUD Supervisory Network

'Who Do You Call' activity OSHPB ODE or OSHPB I've been told to make a I've been asked to student eligible for services, back date billing but he doesn't meet the information, who do I contact to discuss my three prongs of eligibility outlined in Federal law. Who ethical dilemma? Union do I call to find out what I should do next? I've been assigned to duties in all 3 of my buildings and I don't think it's fair. Who can I call?

February 2022

Find us on facebook: Ohio SLP AUD Supervisory Network